The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. St. Martin of 1408 Beech street, Torrance, and the groom the son of Mrs. E. M. Kessler of Seattle, Washington, and Mr. R. H. Bezanson, Sr., of Lomita.

Gown Described
For a snug half-cap covered with rows of tiny net ruffles, flanked by clusters of seed pearls in a leaf pattern, the bride's veil cascaded over a crisp white Swiss embroidered organdie, long sleeved gown, simply encased at the bodice and billowing in several tiers over full taffeta underskirts.

The chapel train was gracefully and cleverly fashioned as a part of one of the embroidered tiers of the ensemble. A delicate marker for her white prayer book, was a spray of white orchid, carnations and lily of the valley.

Attendants
Serving her sister as maid of honor was Miss Diane St. Martin in pink embroidered organdie, and gracing the entourage in similar gowns of Nile green with matching picture hats were bridesmaids Sally Sprout, Babs Whitley, and Michelle Silver. Complimenting the pastel hues of the attendants' ensembles were the white shasta daisies they carried in baskets lined with ribbon and net matching the bouffant organdie dresses.

Small Patty Johnson, whose brother was one of the ushers, looked a diminutive prototype of the maid of honor in billowing pink organdie with matching picture hat, as she scattered the rose petals in her role of flower girl.

Attending the groom were Loran Chapple as best man, and Bill Johnson, Jerry Neeley, and Tom Pryor as ushers.

During the ceremony, Miss Claire Brentwood sang "A Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer," with Miss Catherine Mills at the organ. 250 Attend Reception
Mrs. St. Martin, mother of the bride, wore a taffeta princess style dress of navy and rose print, accented by pink and navy accessories, baby pink roses co-ordinating her corsage. Mrs. Kessler, visiting from Seattle, wore a lace gown of dusty rose, complimented by orchid accents and corsage.

Immediately following the wedding, approximately 250 friends and kin gathered at the reception in the parish hall, to shower congratulations on the newlyweds, both graduates of Torrance High School.

LENORE RUGG WED IN DOUBLE RING CEREMONY

Amid a summary atmosphere of large flower filled baskets, Miss Lenore Helen Rugg exchanged rings and vows with Mr. Donald U. Headley last Saturday afternoon in Latter Day Saints Church here, Bishop Edwin Wheat officiating.

The bride, daughter of the Minot F. Ruggs of 1506 W. 214th street, Torrance, was given in marriage by her father. Her bridal gown was balerina length of nylon tulle over satin, and her matron of honor, Mrs. Richard Peterson, a childhood friend, was gowned in pink nylon net of balerina length.

Groom's Attendants

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Miles J. Headley of 25344 Walnut, Lomita. Attending as best man was Mr. Ralph Wycoff, while Raymond Headley and Richard Jay ushered.

Mother's Gowns
Navy blue and white composed the ensemble worn by Mrs. Rugg, mother of the bride, while Mrs. Headley chose brown with yellow accents.

The newlyweds, both graduates of Narbonne High School, received a large congratulatory group at the reception held at the church immediately following the ceremony.

Lomita was named as the new residence of the couple, the groom being employed at the Torrance branch of Douglas Aircraft.

ROSES SET THEME AT SMILEY-STANFORD RITE

Roses were the theme of the double ring wedding last Saturday evening at Lomita Presbyterian Church, when Miss Patricia Joyce Stanford, daughter of the W. K. Stanfords of Lomita was wed to Ronald Dean Smiley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smiley of Compton. Rev. Eldon Durham officiated at the rites.

Rose Bouquets
Carrying Talsman roses, Miss Patricia Smiley, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. The red Talsman roses she carried were complimentary contrast to her full length taffeta gown of royal blue with Elizabethan neckline, and small matching taffeta hat.

The bridesmaids carried red "Happiness" roses, and their gowns were of pale blue taffeta with long matching gloves. In the entourage were Mmes. Robert Thompson, Roy Ferrin, Paul Pettit, and Miss Mary Jo Schrepel.

Bridal Gown
The bride was attired in white satin, the full length train flowing from her princess style gown with Elizabethan neckline. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a coronet, and her bouquet, carrying out the rose theme, was of white roses and orchid.

Powder blue and white were the colors predominating among the male contingent, as best man Donald Stahl wore a white jacket, and ushers sporting powder blue jackets were Thomas Stanford, Herbert Rankin, and junior usher, Michael Stanford, brother of the bride.

Garden Reception

Following the wedding a garden reception was held at the Stanford home, where the bride's mother, Mrs. Frances Clark, wore a pale pink lace and tulle ensemble accented by accessories of a deep metallic pink. Mrs. Stanford wore mauve lace and tulle with dubonnet accents, and Mrs. Smiley chose black accessories to compliment her lace dress of french blue and matching hat.

The newlyweds will call Torrance home when they return from their honeymoon of undisclosed destination.
